

Mammy, the Cook, says:—"Bromm's Bread is sure good. It's got me beat, and I is some bread maker."

The Cook Cannot Make Good Bread all the Time--Bromm Can and Does

Ask for Bromm's Bread--Insist

Bromm's Bread appeals to discriminating taste—the bread baker at home. It has the good points of the "home-made" with a few distinctly its own—and it's much easier to say BROMM'S than it is to stand over a hot stove.

An "Old Fashioned" Bread

We have not just installed some new-fangled, nickel-plated mechanical experiment, warranted to turn out amazing quantities of a low quality product at cut prices. What we do profess is to make BROMM'S Bread—clean, wholesome and home-like—in the good "old-fashioned" way.

Bromm's is a Brain Bread

No need to eat an unsatisfying bread three times a day when you can get home-made Bromm's Bread, so good that you'll want it all the time—a Bread that is good all the time. Try us a month. Ask your grocer for BROMM'S BREAD.

Bromm's, better than any other "best"—worth more in every way—yet the price is no higher.

Be a BROMM-ITE. It's safest and more conservative—and a Bromm-ite is always happy.

Bromm's Bread keeps the family healthy. It is nourishing, sweet and as pure as spring water.

The Bread that is known to fame is the Bread that bears Bromm's name.

There's no mystery in the making of Bromm's Bread—the great problem is in supplying the increasing demand.

Some people say they don't like bakers' bread. That's because they are not familiar with Bromm's Bread.

Be as fastidious as you please, you will not be really so until you get the Bromm's Bread habit.

501 WEST BROAD STREET
Monroe 1685

A Daily Delight---Bromm's Bread

516 E. MARSHALL STREET
Monroe 875

L. Bromm Baking Company

Raleigh Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., March 26.—Invitations are issued by the Misses Monro for a reception to be given on Wednesday afternoon, March 30, in honor of Miss Irene Strayer, of Harrisburg, Va., who is the guest of the Misses Monro.
Miss Elizabeth Briggs has issued invitations to a tea to be given Saturday of next week by her in honor of Mrs. Willie G. Briggs, who was Miss Sanderlin, of Washington, D. C., and who is now the charming bride of Postmaster W. G. Briggs, of Raleigh.
The "Culmination of Drama in Shakespeare" was the theme of an especially enlightening paper by Mrs. F. L. Stevens, Thursday afternoon before the Woman's Club, of Raleigh. There was also a delightful interpretation of "Merry Wives of Windsor" by the elocution class of Meredith College. The meeting was under the auspices of the literary department of the club, Miss Eliza Pool being chairman; Mrs. M. B. Sherwood, Miss S. E. Young, Miss Mattie Bailey and Miss Caro Gray are associated with her in the work of the department.
Mrs. J. S. Wynne was hostess Saturday afternoon for a delightful tea in honor of Mrs. John Harden and Miss Annspaugh. The apartments of the Wynne home were prettily decorated in yellow jonquils. There was a service of dainty refreshments, the punch being served by Miss Julia Momen.
Mrs. W. R. Crawford was hostess this week for the Tuesday Afternoon Club, the meeting being one of the most enjoyable of the season.
Mrs. M. T. Jordan is in Goldsboro for a few days with her mother, Mrs. A. L. Sasser.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox spent several days in Richmond this week with General and Mrs. W. R. Cox.
With the women of the reception committee costumed to represent some well known books, and with special features of entertainment that proved most enjoyable for every one, the parlors of Peace Institute were thrown open to the friends of the institution Thursday evening for a book reception, that proved highly enjoyable. There were 100 or more callers during the evening, and each guest brought a donation for the library of this school.
The Fortnightly Review Club met this week with Dr. Della Dixon Carroll, the special topic being "Two Interpretations of the Negro." There was an interesting paper by Mrs. J. R. Young, in which she treated delightfully "The Old Plantation Negro" as depicted in the Joel Chandler Harris writings. Then there was a paper by Mrs. Kennedy, on "The Manor House Negro," as portrayed in the writings of Thomas Nelson Page, Dr. Dixon-Carroll accompanied delightful hospitality.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller had as guests several days the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Taylor, of Los Angeles, Cal.
Wednesday afternoon Mrs. R. T. Gray was hostess for the Olive Podrida Book Club, the meeting being most enjoyable. There was a review of current literature by Mrs. J. N. Hildner, a reading from Ruth McEnery Stewart, by Miss Eliza Pool; a paper on Helen Hunt Jackson, by Mrs. H. E. Hutchford; and the reading of a sketch from Howard Wheeler, the latter being read by Mrs. J. J. Thomas.
Miss Elizabeth Moore, of Winston-Salem, president of the North Carolina Woman's Christian Temperance Union, spent the week in Raleigh, the guest of Mrs. C. N. Walters, and delivered several temperance talks and addresses at various meetings. Thursday afternoon there was an informal reception by Mrs. Walters in her honor.
Miss Kate Cheshire, of Tarboro, is in the city, a guest in the home of Bishop James Mount Cheshire.
Mrs. R. D. W. Connor has as her guest Miss Mamie Dwire, of Winston-Salem.
Mrs. M. O. Sherrill has as her guest this week Mrs. A. A. Shuford, of Hickory. Mrs. Shuford has a daughter in St. Mary's School here.
Quite a large and fashionable audience assembled in Roney Hall Thursday evening for a recital by Miss Dumais, of the faculty of Peace Institute. The program was both difficult and delightful, having a rare combination of musical charm for the initiated, and interesting technique for the cultured musician.

GOWANS

King of External Preparations, will do all that is claimed for it. Druggists say so. It is absolutely certain that if our claims were not well founded the popularity of GOWAN'S would not increase in the astounding proportion that it does. From everywhere comes most encouraging letters; sales are multiplying, and while your money will be refunded cheerfully if our Preparation fails to do what we claim for it, it is a singular thing that instead of wanting their money back patrons want more of the great External Preparation. Ask for it and buy TO-DAY. Have it in the home. You do not know what will happen to-night. Take no substitute; your druggist keeps it, and there is nothing made "just as good." Demand GOWAN'S—use GOWAN'S, and you will get results.—Three Sizes: $1.00, 50c, 25c.

Have recommended Gowan's Preparation for Sore Throat, Crouped Lungs, Sufferers, Sprains, and any Soreness or Inflammatory condition, and have been disappointed in results.
A. TORRENCE & CO., Druggists, Pittsburg, Pa.

terpretations of the Negro." There was an interesting paper by Mrs. J. R. Young, in which she treated delightfully "The Old Plantation Negro" as depicted in the Joel Chandler Harris writings. Then there was a paper by Mrs. Kennedy, on "The Manor House Negro," as portrayed in the writings of Thomas Nelson Page, Dr. Dixon-Carroll accompanied delightful hospitality.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller had as guests several days the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Taylor, of Los Angeles, Cal.
Wednesday afternoon Mrs. R. T. Gray was hostess for the Olive Podrida Book Club, the meeting being most enjoyable. There was a review of current literature by Mrs. J. N. Hildner, a reading from Ruth McEnery Stewart, by Miss Eliza Pool; a paper on Helen Hunt Jackson, by Mrs. H. E. Hutchford; and the reading of a sketch from Howard Wheeler, the latter being read by Mrs. J. J. Thomas.
Miss Elizabeth Moore, of Winston-Salem, president of the North Carolina Woman's Christian Temperance Union, spent the week in Raleigh, the guest of Mrs. C. N. Walters, and delivered several temperance talks and addresses at various meetings. Thursday afternoon there was an informal reception by Mrs. Walters in her honor.
Miss Kate Cheshire, of Tarboro, is in the city, a guest in the home of Bishop James Mount Cheshire.
Mrs. R. D. W. Connor has as her guest Miss Mamie Dwire, of Winston-Salem.
Mrs. M. O. Sherrill has as her guest this week Mrs. A. A. Shuford, of Hickory. Mrs. Shuford has a daughter in St. Mary's School here.
Quite a large and fashionable audience assembled in Roney Hall Thursday evening for a recital by Miss Dumais, of the faculty of Peace Institute. The program was both difficult and delightful, having a rare combination of musical charm for the initiated, and interesting technique for the cultured musician.

Pinehurst Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Pinehurst, N. C., March 26.—Socially the week has been a busy one, even-ings of enjoyment rounding out perfect days spent in the open, with interest centered in the annual Tin Whistle fall, a fancy dress party. Splendidly carried out, even to the minutest detail, the affair proved one of the most brilliant of the long series, the music hall of the Carolina being transformed by effective floral decorations and the club emblem.

Prizes were awarded for the eight best costumes in various classes, by a committee, including Mrs. Frank Presbrey, of New York; Mrs. J. E. Smith, of Wilmington; Mrs. L. E. Beall, of Uniontown; Mrs. P. N. Sewall, of Chicago; and Mrs. E. N. Galloway, of Kansas City, to Miss Frances Hammond, of Boston, as a Gothic Queen; Mrs. Leonard Tufts, of Boston, as a Suffragette; Mrs. F. A. King, of Northboro, Mass., as a Swiss Peasant; Miss Harriet Horton, of Williamsport, as a Dutch Maiden; A. W. Nevens, of Minneapolis, as an Arab Chief; Spencer Waters, of New York, as a Dutch Boy; L. D. Pierce, of Rochester, Vt., as the King of Clubs; and H. S. Stearns, Jr., of New York, as a Chief. Special prizes were awarded to Miss Ruby Sewall, of Kansas City, as an Old-Fashioned Girl, and Miss Ericella Beall, of Uniontown, as a Gypsy, and honorable mention to Leonard Tufts, of Boston, as a Native Type; P. A. King, of Northboro, as a Minstrel; Gardner Hammond, of Boston, as a Farmer; Mrs. J. R. Shoat, of New York, as a Japanese; Miss Lady Miller, of New York, as a French Maid, and Miss Claire Hawick, of New York, as a Yama Yama Girl.

Other affairs included a three-act play, "Becky's Troubles in the Doll Shop," given by the children at the Hotel Int., under the direction of Miss Margaret Johnson, of Springfield, O., and a progressive bridge party at the Carolina.

the brand-new "overall and bonnet" race, in which the contestants rode to a given point, dismounted, donned overalls and sunbonnets, mounted and returned to the starting point, dismounted, put overalls and bonnets on their horses and recrossed the ring.

A. W. Nevens, of Minneapolis, was the first to accomplish the somewhat difficult feat; J. D. Voorhees, of Camden, second. The relay race was given in new form, four men riding to three unsaddled horses, unsaddling, saddling, remounting and three riding to two more horses, the first two to saddle them (Mr. Nevens and Mr. Voorhees) racing to the top, and finishing in the order given. Another novelty was the cigarette race, ridden in couples, the young women merely being called upon to light the cigarettes the young men carried, won by H. H. Kirkpatrick, of Philadelphia, and Miss Ruby Sewall, of Kansas City; Miss Carolyn Fuller, of New York, won the potato race for women, and Mr. Nevens, the men's event. In the lance and ring contest, Mr. Voorhees, at Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Leonard Tufts, of Boston, tied twice. Mr. Voorhees winning the third test.

Other contestants were Mrs. A. C. Griffith, of Tenafly; Miss Connelly, of New York; Miss Harriet Holden, of Litchfield; Miss Graydon, of Cincinnati; Mrs. W. Hornblower, of South Orange, and Charles Ferick, of Baltimore, and Master Griffith, of Tenafly. Many moonlight rides and suppers have been enjoyed and a big crowd turned out for the weekly baseball game, which the Carolina team won in the eleventh inning.

Mrs. W. Ben Palmer and Miss Montague, of Richmond, are spending several weeks here.

has returned to her home in Warren-ton, Va.

The Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will bestow crosses of honor to the Confederate veterans on April 9, with appropriate exercises.

Ashland Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ashland, Va., March 26.—Miss Marjorie Chisolm left Wednesday for her home in Birmingham, Ala., after a delightful visit to her sister, Mrs. Bernard Guest.
Misses Mary Garth, of Charlottesville, and Annie Laurie Haynes, of Richmond, are Easter guests of Miss Annie Mason Potts.
Fred K. Prosser, of V. P. I., is spending the holidays with his sister, Mrs. B. Morgan Shepherd.
Miss Grayson Woodhull, of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, and her friend, Miss Thompson, are at the Henry Clay Inn, with Mr. and Mrs. James Woodhull, for the week.
Mrs. Ivy Foreman Lewis is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Dunn, in Gordonsville.
John W. Brownley and C. Keith Carlin, of Randolph-Macon College, are spending the holidays in Norfolk. Miss Ellie Wingfield, of Sweet Briar Institute, is the guest of Mrs. Burnett Sydney.
Miss Lillian Dally left this week for Charleston, S. C., to visit friends.
Miss Ruth D. Whitte, of Martinsville, is the guest of Miss Martha Hughes.
Mrs. David Watts, of Portsmouth, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. G. Ford.
Mrs. Hugh Denoon and little son, Charles, were guests of relatives here during the past week.
Miss Mamie Peake, of Washington, is visiting Miss Edythe White, Lynchburg, and her friend, Miss Thompson, are at the Henry Clay Inn, with Mr. and Mrs. James Woodhull, for the week.
Mrs. Lillian Dally left this week for Charleston, S. C., to visit friends.
Miss Ruth D. Whitte, of Martinsville, is the guest of Miss Martha Hughes.

Appomattox Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Appomattox, Va., March 26.—Jerry Burke, of this place, left this week to accept a position with the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, at Petersburg. Mr. Burke was a student of the Agricultural High School here. Miss Katie Woodridge, who has been in Richmond for the past six months, has returned home.
Rogers Shop School closed this week with fitting exercises.
Miss J. H. Alwood, and two daughters, Misses Lynelle and Jacquelyne, spent several days with friends and relatives in Lynchburg this week.
Miss Nina Jones and Master Kendall Hunter are recovering slowly from an attack of scarlet fever.
Mrs. C. B. Holtzclaw, who has been visiting her daughter, of this place, Montvale High School on Monday.

On Tuesday evening the Calliopean Society gave another of its enjoyable entertainments. The program was unusually full, including recitations, declamations and discussions, upon popular subjects, such as Arctic expeditions, Halley's comet and the new woman, interspersed with instrumental music from the Montvale Minstrels.

Mrs. Ballard, of Bedford, was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Bettie Rice.

Miss Elize Oley has returned from an extended visit to relatives in Charleston, W. Va.

Miss Mabel Oley, who has been teaching at Bunker Hill, is at home spending her school vacation.

Miss Mary Ferrell and Howard Ferrell, of Roanoke, are at the bedside of their father, Milton Ferrell, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. R. L. Ford, who has been visiting in Roanoke, spent Tuesday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Price, on her way to Lowry, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Ford, of that place, after which she will return to her home at Montvale.

The Woman's Club, of Montvale, will meet on Friday afternoon to appoint delegates to the State Federation at Danville.

Mrs. Cora Hoffman Read, from Stuart Hall, Staunton, is expected to arrive on Thursday to spend the Easter holidays at Edge Hill.

Miss Nannie Rice, who has been at the hospital at Welsh, W. Va., under treatment for several weeks, is expected home to-day.

Montvale Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Montvale, Va., March 26.—Professor J. J. Davis, of Petersburg, State examiner, was a welcome visitor at the amateur was a welcome visitor at the

amateur was a welcome visitor at the

amateur was a welcome visitor at the

amateur was a welcome visitor at the

amateur was a welcome visitor at the

If Coffee

Causes your heart to beat rapidly on slight exertion, better stop, and use

POSTUM

"There's a Reason"

Read "The Road to Wellville," in packages.